University of West Bohemia
An exciting place to study and live...

You won't be bored in Pilsen!
The University of West Bohemia is a modern and dynamic higher education institution situated in an exciting city with old history. The campus provides a variety of opportunities to get students engaged on and off campus.

Pilsen is the fourth largest city in the Czech Republic. It is an important industrial, commercial, cultural, and administrative center with long history. The world-famous engineering and brewery tradition began in the 19th century when the engineering complex Skoda and Pilsner Urquell were established. Nowadays, the modern industrial park and the university’s research centres carry on this tradition.

Get the flavour of Pilsner life!
As the European Capital of Culture 2015, Pilsen offers a wide variety of cultural, sports and social events. Cost of living in Pilsen is about 60% lower than in London and 40% lower than in Berlin so you can get quite a lot of fun for reasonable price. As there are many foreign students and international companies the atmosphere in Pilsen is friendly.

You will have an opportunity to travel not only in the Czech Republic (Prague, Carlsbad, Český Krumlov, Brno etc.), but also to other places in Europe: Regensburg, Munich, Nuremberg, Vienna, the Alps. All of them are only a short distance away!
